Fra Presidenten, Barbara Erickson

Hello Members: We are lucky to have an Ibsen play at Coe College this month, "The Lady of the Sea," on April 5-13. I highly encourage you to see it. More details are on Page 4.

Another way to spend a cold, windy spring evening is viewing Jamie Oliver's great foodie video on YouTube about Stockholm,

"Jamie's Food Escapes/ Jamie Does Stockholm."

Don't forget our Syttende Mai breakfast is soon too!

See you at our next meeting
April 9 at 7:00!

BREAKING NEWS FROM HQ

Just a reminder that while we can't accept a credit card number over the phone or written on an application/renewal, you can use your credit card when you renew online. Just know that it will NOT automatically renew yearly, so when you get your invoice notice, make sure to go back in to pay.

Please make sure any paper applications you use do not have credit card information on them. The website has the most up-to-date version of the applications: US APPLICATION

There once was a knitter so grand,
Stranded knitting was her command.
With yarn so fine, and
needles in hand,
Buttonholes formed like magic, unplanned.

Dows Theatre

A woman in 19th century Norway, living a safe and secure life with a loving family, is haunted by the memory of more exciting times. When a stranger tempts her with the chance to return to those times, she is faced with an impossible choice – fulfilling her deepest desires, or remaining within the safety of her comfortable home – or is there a third way? By the author of A Doll House.
